Impressions in Bloom

Here's a great gift idea that your bridal couple will love and it's simple to make!

What you'll need:

- ? Tupperware® Impressions Classic Bowl Set
- ? Three tall, round pieces of oasis (florists foam)
- ? Flowers of your choice
- ? Fern or baby's breath, optional

How to do it:

1. Cut the oasis to fit in the bottom of each bowl and to top one or two inches above the edge of the large and medium bowls. Saturate the oasis with water if you are using fresh flowers.
2. Cut the flowers so that no more than four inches of stem remain.
3. Starting at the edge of the large bowl, insert the flowers into the oasis following a circular pattern. After two or three rows place the medium bowl on top and repeat.
4. Then set the small bowl on top. Insert oasis so that it comes to two inches below the lip of the bowl. Insert flowers into oasis until full.

Wedding Tip:

Every bride loves Tupperware products and she'll get just what she wants at her own Tupperware Bridal Shower! Let her know that you are interested in hosting a fabulous Tupperware Bridal Shower especially for her.

Additional Safeguards:

? Use 2" wide Scotch tape and roll it so you have sticky on all sides and place it under the oasis in each bowl.

? If you need extra balance with the tiers, use the largest seal on the bottom as a saucer and put the medium size seal on top of the oasis in the large bowl after you have inserted flowers and place medium size bowl on top of medium seal.

Put the small seal on top of the oasis in the medium sized bowl after you have inserted flowers and place small size bowl on top of small seal.

? Take eight long strands of curling ribbon, tie a knot which lands in the middle of the eight strands attaching all eight strands together.

Place ribbon under the bottom large seal and pull two opposite side ribbons over the bowls and tie at the top, having extra ribbon hang down sides of display.

Do this until you have tied all ribbons. Scotch tape the ribbons on the bottom of the large seal to stop them from moving or sliding. This gives you complete stability and the Impressions in Bloom display is now carry friendly.

Here Comes the Bridal Bouquet

Here's the "Bridal Bouquet" sure to be appreciated for many anniversaries to come. Underneath the pretty petticoats is Tupperware's award-winning Double Colander, featuring a two part design valued for its ability to lock and drain, as well as strain directly from a pot.

What you will need:

- ? Tupperware Double Colander
- ? 1-¼ yards of white crepe paper
- ? 1 yard of 72" wide netting

- ? 2-½ yards of white wire-edge ribbon
- ? Silk flowers and greenery

How to do it:

1. Cover the assembled Colander with crepe paper, tucking in the sides and gathering the excess at the top of the colander handle.

2. Cut two 36" squares of netting and layer them. Position the paper-covered Colander in the netting center; wrap the Colander with the netting, gathering the netting at the top of Colander handle.

3. Cut the ribbon into two equal lengths. Secure the gathers at the Colander handle with one length tying it in a half knot. Layer the remaining length figure-eight style to make four equal loops and two tails. Position the looped ribbon over the ribbon's half knot and secure the loops by finishing the knot. Adjust the loops and rails as needed.

4. Decorate with flowers and greenery.

Gift Idea:

This bridal bouquet makes an ideal prize at a bridal shower. (be sure to make one for the bride too!)

Bridal Bingo

Create your own set of bingo cards except don't use numbers but instead, use things pertaining to weddings. Instead of having BINGO across the top, use the word BRIDE. An example would be to have all the items in the "B" column be "items bride wears at wedding." The items in this row could be garter, veil, gown etc. There needs to be a master list to call from. The normal bingo rules apply. For Example: A caller pulls out B - gown and guests look under the column 'B' to see if they have gown. If they do, they mark off the square. The first person to get a line horizontally, vertically, or diagonally is declared the winner. This one takes quite some time to prepare.

Bridal Shower Adjective Game

Give each guest a piece of paper on which she writes five adjectives. Read aloud the paragraph below pointing in turn to each guest who adds the next of her words.

Marriage is a _____ occasion! It can be a _____ experience for two _____ young people. (Couple's Name) will experience some _____ and some _____ times together.

Sharing will be a _____ part of their _____ marriage! Remember, as you begin on this _____ journey, follow our _____ advice: Always keep a _____ attitude in times of trouble! Our best wishes to the _____ couple.

May you have many years of happiness ahead!!!

Bridal Shower Bingo

This game is definitely intended for large showers. Prepare blank bingo cards, but write "marry" at the top instead of bingo. Each guest fills out a blank card with gifts that they think will be received at the shower. While the gifts are being opened, guests should check to see if they wrote that gift on their card. If they did, it should be crossed off. When a person gets five crossed off in a row, either vertically, horizontally, or diagonally, then they yell "marry!" and are the winner.

Bridal Shower Introductory Game

Have guests give their name, a means of transportation and a place to go on a honeymoon, all beginning with the first letter of their name. Ex. "My name is Mary and we traveled by mule train to Montana."

Cake Game

Prize to the guest who gets the most right.

- |                   |              |                   |        |

Romance Game

Have guests make a tally mark each time she hears the name of tree, fruit or flower. The one closest to the total of 25 is the winner. Don't tell them in advance how many there are.) A consultant reads the story aloud.

The romance began on a hike one day. It is true that he had met her once before at the Beech, where he was a lifeguard, but they had not been formally introduced. Her name was Rosebud and his was Red Wood. She was very Poplar with the boys. In fact, her Poppy was afraid she would wed some never do well instead of Marigold. She always said anyone who married for anything but love was Plum crazy. Red Wood thought she was a Peach and fell in love with her at first sight. "You are a real American Beauty, Rose, and the Apple of my eye." He said. Thereupon, he Aster to marry him. She loved him but pretended to doubt his faithfulness. "What Lady Slipper did I see you with the other day?" She asked. "Oh, Rose, marry me or I will have a Bleeding Heart. If only you knew how I Pine for you." Just then her brother, Johnny, fell down and cried and cried. She said, "Johnny Jump Up, you're not hurt. "How can you Lilac that?" Johnny Ashed them Fir a quarter to keep his Tulips shut and stop crying. Then Red Wood resumed his courting and they were married at Four-O'clock the nest day by Jack-in-the-Pulpit. Everyone said they made a good Pear.

The Groom

Prior to the shower, someone contacts the groom and asks him a list of questions (about 10 or 15) about himself and the "intended" Be sure that whatever you ask him remains a secret so that the bride doesn't know ahead of time. Write out each question on a 3x5 index card and on the back write the grooms answers. Some types of questions can be:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1. What's the groom's favorite food?                           | 2. If the groom were a superhero, who would he be? |
| 3. What was the date of your first kiss, date?                 | 4. Where did you go on your first date?            |
| 5. What animal would the groom compare you to? --Get creative! |  |

At the shower, read the questions to the group. Each person writes down how many they think the bride will get right. To get the question right, the bride must match the groom's answer. Then ask the bride the questions, let her answer, then read them out loud. It's a lot of fun and can get very interesting.

Touchy-Feely

You can use paper or cloth bags, so that the guests are able to feel the item. Find about 10-15 common items around the house (i.e., remote control, video tape, pen, tooth brush, etc.) and place the items in each bag. Pass the items around for the guests to feel. They're allowed to 15-30 seconds to hold the bag, then they must pass to the next guest. They should have a pen and paper to write down their guesses. The guest with the most correct answers wins.

Wedding Dress

Before the shower, purchase several rolls of white toilet paper. At the party, divide the guests into two or more groups of 3-5 people. Each group must choose a model for their wedding dress (mothers of the bride and/or groom work wonderfully). The goal is for each group to design and fashion a "wedding dress" out of toilet paper. Accessories are allowed (earrings, bouquets, trains, headpieces, wedding ring, etc.), but they must all be fashioned out of toilet paper. Once the groups are finished, the bride must pick the winner of the contest. This is my favorite bridal shower activity. And brides love this contest for the wonderful photo-memories it provides.

Wedding Tic Tac Toe

Have guests draw a large tic tac toe board on their paper. They should fill each of the nine spaces with a word or phrase pertaining to a wedding. Have each guest in turn read and cross off one of her answers. Any guest with the same word crosses it off. First to get three in a row wins. Or you can read words off this list: bride, garter, vows, rice, ring, wedding cake, happiness, groom, friends, mother of the bride, flowers, reception, maid of honor, flower girl, ring bearer, best man, bridesmaids, ceremony, food, tuxedo, tears, something borrowed, something blue, honeymoon, luggage, music, gifts, minister, mother of the groom, relatives, church, gifts, ushers, shower, lace, ribbons, decorations, veil, candles, pictures.

Weddings and Flowers

For this game the questions all relate to weddings and the answers are all flowers.

- |   |                    |
|---|--------------------|
| 1. How did the wedding day start?         | Morning Glory      |
| 2. What was the Bride's name?             | Daisy, Pansy, Rose |

What The Bride Wears

Give each guest one minute to write down everything they can think of that the bride will wear on her Wedding day. The guest with the longest list wins one of the larger game gifts.

Word Jumble

Find out just how well your guests know about organizing a wedding by having them unscramble the following list of wedding related words.
