

CONFIDENCE

is our commitment

Confidence isn't just a word to us. At Tupperware, strengthening your confidence so you can achieve your goals is our first priority. Knowing the facts can fuel your confidence, so let's answer your questions about starting your Tupperware business.

How much money can I make?

As soon as you begin, you'll receive 25% profit on your personal sales, with the opportunity to earn up to 35% when you meet monthly sales volume qualifications.

Weekly Parties	Total Weekly Retail Sales	Weekly Income	Monthly Income	Yearly Income	Approx. Weekly Hours
1	$450	$113	$540	$7,020	3-5
3	$1,350	$338	$1,890	$24,570	9-15
5	$2,250	$563	$3,150	$40,950	15-25

This is a potential earning example based on a party average of $450 and not a guarantee of income.

How much time will it take?

Each party takes about two to three hours. You decide how many parties you want to hold each week. You can also decide how much time to invest in the other ways you can earn money with your Tupperware business: our fundraising program, internet sales, catalog sales and by building your team.

How do I get started?

Ask your Consultant about ordering your Business Kit today. In it, you'll receive all the Tupperware® products, business tools and materials you'll need for a successful start. We'll coach you on how to schedule your first month's business to begin making money!

What kind of support do I receive?

As a new Tupperware business owner, through the Confident Start program, you qualify for tools to grow your business and open the doors to increased earning potential during your first 13 weeks. You'll also benefit from hands-on encouragement and leadership from a community of like-minded Tupperware business owners.

What are the benefits of owning a Tupperware business?

Enjoy free training, recognition and awards, the satisfaction of owning your own business and setting your own schedule, endless opportunities for self-advancement and the chance to meet great people.
