Backyard Couples' BBQ!

As the weather heats up, it's a great time to get outside and grill! Tupperware parties are fun with the ladies, but add some men to the mix and you've got yourself a backyard soirée. Couples Tupperware parties make for a fun experience, instantly double your guest list, and as Tupperware Brands Chairman and CEO Rick Goings said in a recent article in the New York Times, "(We want to) inspire women to buy the products and get men to pitch in at mealtime." The Backyard Couples BBQ is a great party to get the ladies together and the men behind the grill. So, fire up the charcoal, get out your Quick Chef and get ready to have a date night party no one will ever forget!

Products to Feature:

- Get Out and Grill Set

Apricot Sorbet

Serves 4

- 1 (15 oz.) can apricot halves
- 2 tbsp. sugar
- ½ lemon, juiced

Place apricot halves and juice in 2 ¾-cup/650 mL Small 2 Freezer Mates® container. Place in freezer and freeze until solid. Remove from freezer and break into medium chunks and place in Quick Chef with blade attachment. Add sugar and lemon juice. Replace cover and turn handle and process until smooth. Place back into a Freezer Mates® container and store in freezer until serving. Allow to soften slightly before serving.

Creamy Orange Dreamsicle

Serves 4

- 1 cup heavy cream
- ½ cup sugar
- 2 oranges (juice and zest)
- Pinch of salt
- Whip cream, sugar, orange juice and salt to soft peaks in Quick Chef with paddle attachment.
- Place into 2 ¾-cup/650 mL Small 2 Freezer Mates® container to harden and store in freezer until serving. Allow to soften slightly before serving.

Note: May substitute strawberries, blueberries or mixed berries for oranges.

how to Party!

When all of the couples arrive, get them involved in the party right away. Here are some of the tasks you can distribute to your party guests. This is a great way to start mingling and having some fun!

Groups of couples can:

- Form burgers with the Hamburger Press
- Prepare the Quick Chef Ice Cream recipes (on reverse side)
- Make sangria using the Wine Accessories Set and the Ice Prisms™ Thirst Quencher Set

While the food is being prepared, visit each couple and explain the features and benefits of the products they're using and suggest other Tupperware® products that can complete their set. It'll be easy for them to have a first-hand experience with the products if they're busy using them.

Dating a Backyard Couples BBQ Party:

The Forget Me Not™ Jr. container is a perfect conversation starter from the Birthday Month Host flyer! Hosts won't forget they've dated a party when they see this versatile container hanging from the kitchen shelf. Suggest that they fill it with healthy snacks like berries or baby carrots for a go-to munchie.

Hosts will line up to date a party when you show them the Mini 16-oz./475 mL Pitcher. Show them how easy it is to serve barbeque sauce for the food or chocolate and caramel sauce for their ice cream recipes at their Backyard Couples BBQ!

the Newlywed game:

Get the couples laughing and learning about each other. Tupperware parties are a fantastic way to meet new friends. Divide up the couples by men and women and tell the men to leave the area for just a few minutes. Ask the women three to four fun questions like, "What direction does your front door face?" (additional questions are available on your website). Make sure to write down their responses on note cards. When the men come back out, ask them to sit next to their partner. Ask them the same questions and if their answers match, they are awarded five points. At the end of the game, each couple receives a small piece of Tupperware—a citrus peeler or Tiny Treasures™ keychain—as a Thank You gift for playing. The couple with the most points at the end of the game ALSO wins a great Tupperware® product for their home!

SHARE the Confidence:

After the game, and after everyone's had a delicious frozen dessert made in the Quick Chef, share your Tupperware "I-story" with the group and introduce the Tupperware Opportunity to them.
